Knowing Jesus or Knowing About Jesus: What's the Difference?

Isn't social media wonderful for staying in touch? You can watch a video of your nephew's first step, share your grandmother's recipes, or make personal contact with your best friend on his birthday. Even when separated by distance, you carry your friends and family around with you in your pocket or purse.

But it's not the same as being there in person, is it? There's no substitute for holding your mom's hand at the clinic when she gets bad news or sitting by your dad's side at a funeral. A true relationship is more than following a news feed; it's being an eyewitness to history and experiencing it firsthand.

More Than Just Information

This distinction between knowing about someone and truly knowing them applies directly to our faith. Most people know the facts about Jesus' life, as told to them by parents, grandparents, Sunday school teachers, and pastors. The people of Nazareth knew who Jesus' parents were. They heard reports about his preaching and miracles and were thrilled to have him visit. But they didn't know him as well as they thought. Jesus himself announced, "No prophet is accepted in his hometown" (Luke 4:24). And when Jesus started to tell them what needed to change, the people of Nazareth tried to kill him.

Just knowing the facts about Jesus doesn't change our behavior or attitude. Just following the story with our heads won't make us feel ashamed of our sins and lead us to trust him as our Savior. And it certainly won't get us to heaven, because knowing about Jesus isn't the same thing as knowing Jesus.

What Does it Mean to Know Jesus?

Knowing Jesus means taking to heart what he says about our sins, acknowledging our need for a Savior. It means recognizing that there's nothing we can do to earn this relationship, but that he makes it all possible through his grace and sacrifice. It's experiencing his love and forgiveness in a deeply personal way. When we truly know Jesus, we walk with him through the darkest days of our lives, confident in a relationship that never ends, no matter how bad the news may be.

It's less about accumulating information and more about a living, dynamic connection. Think of it this way: you can study all the facts about a famous person, but that doesn't mean you have a relationship with them. A relationship requires interaction, trust, and a willingness to be changed by the other person.

Continued...

This is the peace Jesus speaks of in John 14:27: “Peace I leave with you; My peace I give to you. Not as the world gives, do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid.” The world often defines peace simply as the absence of trouble or conflict. But Jesus’s peace is far more profound. It’s not just a state of being, but a divine gift that is active and transformational. It’s a peace that flows from His perfect sacrifice on the cross, removing God’s wrath and ushering us into His love.

This peace, received from Christ, doesn’t just sit within us. As we experience God’s peace, we are compelled to share it – passing it along in word and action. It informs our actions, guiding us to live lives that reflect this inner tranquility, even when the world weighs heavy around us. Because Christ has given us His peace, we can be at peace with ourselves and with others, knowing He is always with us, just as He promised: “In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world” (John 16:33). This peace, surpassing all understanding (Philippians 4:7), both calms and protects us, enabling us to declare God’s love and transforming peace to a troubled world.

Cultivating Your Relationship with Jesus

How can you be close to someone who lived so long ago?

- Dive into eyewitness accounts: Regularly read the Bible. Put yourself in the place of those who walked with Jesus and apply what they saw and heard to your own life.
- Communicate through prayer: Stay in touch with your Savior by speaking to him in prayer, even with all the busy activities of summer. Prayer is our direct line to him.
- Connect with fellow believers: Join together with other Christians. Growing in your knowledge about Jesus and what he means for you is often enriched through shared faith and discussion.
- Prioritize His House: It’s so important that we not let this pastoral vacancy become a reason for absenting ourselves from God’s house. Our church community is a vital place to encounter Jesus together and share His peace.

It’s true: No Jesus, no peace. Know Jesus, know peace.

You are always welcome to any of our Bible classes!

Wednesday's at 9 a.m. or Sunday's at 9:30 a.m. Held in the fellowship hall. You do not need to start at the beginning of a unit or topic. Please come whenever you can. For those who have been attending church for decades, it may seem that the historic liturgy is boring or vain repetition. In this Bible study, however, we will note how much of the liturgy is actually God's Word as it first appeared in the lives God's people. In a practical and vibrant way, these sessions will help enrich and deepen our worship life and appreciation for Word and Sacrament in a way that has proven tried-and-true over the centuries.

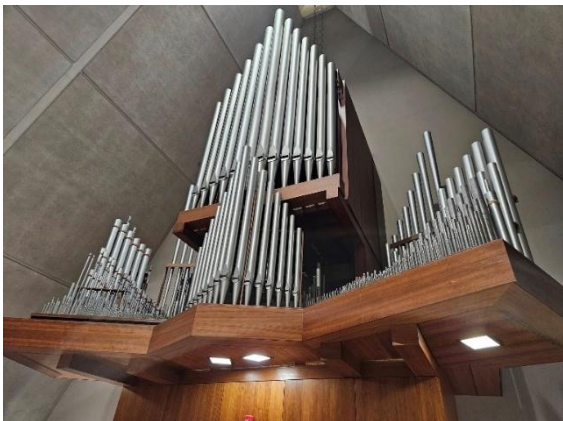

Please help us maintain accurate contact information (addresses, phone numbers & emails) for our members requiring in-home ministry. This is especially critical if there have been changes in the past 8 months.

From the Deaconess –

VBS is one day only! July 12th from 9a – 1p. There will be a form to fill out when you arrive (come as early as 8:30a) for parents/guardians. If you have any questions, please ask Amanda Hahn.

At the beginning of June, I was able to venture to Fort Wayne Indiana for the Organist Workshop. There were 10 of us that week, with 7 being between the ages of 16 and 22 (which is encouraging that there is interest!). Time went a bit too quickly as we were busy each day between lecture/class in the morning and lessons/practice in the afternoon, and typically a gathering at night. There was plenty of information to be absorbed, but also plenty of reinforcement of knowledge I had already learned.

A very special thank you to the thoughtful and generous donor who provided the funding to purchase matching kneeling pads at the communion rail. Praise be to God!

Altar Guild... Please give some prayerful consideration in serving as a member of the Altar Guild. Duties include setting up and cleaning up of communion; keeping the altar paraments current for the Sunday according to the church calendar; and keeping the candles filled and ready for services as needed. Many hands make for light work. 'It has been my privilege to have been on this committee for over 5 years. My last day will be July 6, 2025.' Respectfully, Jan Serre

Holy Cross has competent and faithful representation to the Central Illinois District Convention, July 2025. The Voter's elected Mr. William Serre as Lay Delegate and Mr. Richard Kraft as the alternate Lay Delegate. Thanks be to God.

The Mutual Encouragement Committee

Serves a meal the second Monday of every month following a worship service at Christian Care in Rock Island. In this way we serve both body and soul of those in our community who find themselves in need. Our next date of service is Monday, July 14th, 2025. Monetary donations are always welcome and are used to purchase spaghetti ingredients, salads and garlic bread. A sign-up sheet is in the entryway for those interested in providing desserts or fresh fruit. These items, clearly marked for Christian Care, can be left in the Holy Cross kitchen on Monday or Sunday immediately preceding. Space is limited in the Christian Care kitchen, so those signing up to serve must be limited to four. The Mutual Encouragement Committee thanks you in advance for your kind and generous cooperation.

Our Pantry Sunday recipient for the month of July is Cristo Rey.

A Dollar for Missions News First Project of 2025 - Update

The current Dollar for Missions project is replacement of insulation in the chancel ceiling at Wittenberg Lutheran Center, Normal. Some of this fiberglass insulation has fallen from its place under the roof. The area needing work is hard to reach in a high ceiling, so the job will be expensive. The DFM project is for $10,000. For more details, see <https://www.cidlcms.org/ministry-dfm-current-project.html>

PRAYER

PRAYER O Lord, open the hearts of your people to support the proclamation of the Good News about Jesus in ways large and small. Bless the Dollars for Mission that support mission work in unusual ways. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Interim Gary,

Thanks so much for your most recent gift of $300.00.

In choosing to support this life-saving ministry financially, you are making a huge difference in the lives of moms and dads right here in the Quad Cities.

Today a pregnant mom came in for a follow-up appointment. She is married, has other children, and is preparing for a career change. She wasn't planning to have more children, and was not sure if she would continue this pregnancy or go through with an at-home abortion. After meeting with a nurse and seeing an image like the one above during her ultrasound appointment, she and her husband chose life for their child!

Praise the Lord! Because of you, the care she needed was available.

Life was seen, honored, and protected because of the help that you made possible!
Thank you for your continued generosity.

In your faithful service,

Trisha Wilson

JULY 2025

The Liberty in Christ.

Here in the United States, July 4th is a big national holiday, The United States Independence Day and I am sure you celebrate it. Many families gather together for cookouts. The beaches are full of visitors. Towns all across America have parades and fireworks. It is a time for family reunions and patriotic activities. Right?

Mexico has an Independence day also. The citizens of Mexico all over the world relive the night of September 15th, 1810 when the parish priest, Miguel Hidalgo, called on his townspeople to take arms against the Spaniards who had been ruling Mexico since the days of the Conquest in 1521.

El Grito (The Shout), every 16th of September is the Mexican Fiesta par excellence! Streets, houses, buildings and cars are decorated everywhere in the country. On every street corner there are vendors selling flags, balloons, and hats, all with green, white and red, the national colors. Flags wave from practically every house and building.

It is customary for the current President to deliver the Grito at the National Palace in Mexico City. The original bell rung by Hidalgo is the bell that is rung every 16th of September. The ceremony reaches the high point when the crowd joins in proudly shouting out the names of the heroes of Independence and ends with the exciting: Viva Mexico! When the Grito ceremony ends, the sky lights up with multicolored fireworks that shower the hearts with the pride of knowing that Mexico is free and independent nation.

Why I am talking about liberty? Just read Galatians 5:1 "It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery"

We have the true liberty in Christ for these reasons:

Because of His love, He died on the cross for us; Through His Gospel, we are now His Children; He gave us reconciliation and His peace; Even though we are sinners, we received His forgiveness; Because gave us faith, we confess that we receive salvation. Nations may celebrate their Independence Day, but for Children of God, liberty is constant! Every day in Christ we have true liberty; sin's liberty, death's and hell's liberty granted by Jesus. We do not proclaim liberty for just one day, but for an eternal liberty when we believe in His promises.

PLEASE, WATCH US:

<https://youtu.be/U-limHLeZvY>

Our ministry would not be possible without your support and prayers.

We thank God every day because of you!
